Suspicious Solicitation Activities Alert

Cool Japan Fund, Inc. (CJF or “the Company”) became aware of some suspicious solicitation activities, such as solicitations for investments and job offers, etc., by using the Company name, address and telephone number, or similar company names (e.g., “Cool Japan Co., Ltd.”) which may remind you of CJF.

CJF and its employees have no relationship with these solicitation activities, including solicitations for investments and job offers. CJF has reported these incidents to and consulted with the police.

Once you accept these solicitations and sign a contract, etc., your assets or yourself could be unexpectedly damaged. CJF wishes to warn the recipients of these solicitations, and please do not respond to any suspicious solicitation activities, including solicitations for investments and job offers that use the Company name, address and telephone number, or any similar company names which may remind you of CJF. If you have become aware of any suspicious solicitation or have suffered any damage, please contact the police in your jurisdiction.

- ✓ CJF is different from “Cool Japan Co., Ltd.”. CJF has no relationship with it.
- ✓ CJF does not engage in contracted asset management for individuals. CJF has nothing to do with such solicitations.
- ✓ CJF does not engage in recruiting through social networking or messenger applications. CJF has nothing to do with such recruitments.
